Frequently Asked Questions re: Claims

What is the “waiting period”?

Each state regulates the number of days an injured worker must be off work due to a work related injury before compensation (wage) payments may begin. This period is referred to as a “waiting period” and the number of days varies by state law. The State of North Carolina defines the waiting period as 7 days. Compensation payments begin on the 8th day.

Will an injured worker be paid for the days within the waiting period?

An injured worker may receive compensation payments for the number of days off comprising the waiting period, if he or she is out of work due to the injury longer than a specified period of time.

The reimbursement of waiting period for the State of North Carolina is defined as 21 days following the date of disability according to state law. If an injured worker’s disability lasts longer than 21 days, he/she will be reimbursed for the 7 day waiting period.

How do we obtain a list of medical providers or the Employers’ Posted Panel?

Rules and regulations regarding approved medical providers and/or Employers’ Posted Panels for treatment of injured workers vary by state. It is important for every employer to understand how to identify and utilize medical providers and/or Employers’ Posted Panels. For assistance obtaining a list of preferred providers and/or help setting up an Employers’ Posted Panel, please contact the claims office at (800) 388-6268. In North Carolina, the employer must authorize the selection of the treating physician.

Do we have to provide light duty?

Providing light duty within the guidelines of a medically restricted employee of a compensable claim often shortens the length and reduces the total cost of the claim. While light duty may not be possible for some employers, it is recommended that all employers work to incorporate a light duty/return to work program.

How is the compensation rate calculated?

The compensation rate is 2/3 of the average weekly gross earnings of the injured worker. The number of weeks used for calculating varies by state and is subject to the state’s minimum/maximum at the time of accident. The State of North Carolina uses gross wages where the “Average Weekly Wage” is calculated by taking the total wages paid for the last four quarters immediately preceding the quarter in which the injury occurred as reported on the Employment Security Commission’s Employer Contribution Reports divided by fifty-two or by the actual number of weeks for which wages were paid, whichever is less.

How does the claimant obtain their medication?

The injured worker can obtain their medication from any pharmacy. They should provide the pharmacy with the contact information for ACA for further billing instructions and/or approval as provided below:

Fax (Toll Free): (800) 988-4722
Email: claims@acaworkcomp.com

If we have a deductible can we pay the claims up to the deductible amount?

No. A deductible applies per claim and is set up on a reimbursement basis. That means you, the employer, should file a First Report of Injury on all work related accidents. If our investigation leads to payment of the claim, we will cover costs first dollar and submit one or more invoices to you for reimbursement as payments are made up to the total/maximum per claim deductible amount noted on your policy.

Not all policies have a deductible. Your policy will include a deductible amount on the Workers’ Compensation Policy Information Page if your policy has a deductible.

GENERAL INFORMATION ON THE FORM 18

1. What does a Form 18 do?

A Form 18 establishes a legal claim of injury on your behalf if filed within two years of the date of injury or occupational disease, and gives the required written notice to the employer if a copy is submitted to the employer within 30 days of the injury. The employer is required by law to file a Form 19 if the employee misses more than one day of work due to the injury or if the medical bills exceed $4,000.00. However, the employer's filing of a Form 19 does not satisfy the employee's obligation to file a claim. In order to ensure the employee's rights are protected, the employee must file a Form 18 even though the employer may be paying compensation or the Industrial Commission may have opened a file for the injury.

2. To whom should the Form 18 be sent?

The original Form 18 should be submitted to the Industrial Commission. The injured worker should keep one copy for his or her records and one copy should be submitted to the employer at the time of the injury.

3. What numbers do I write in the upper right corner?

You do not need to fill in the spaces on the upper right corner of the Form 18. If you know that your employer has already filed a report of injury, (Form 19) and you know what your I.C. (Industrial Commission), File Number is, you may write the number in the "I.C. File No." space. If you do not already have an I.C. File Number, the Industrial Commission will assign one upon receipt of the Form 18. The other two spaces "Emp. Code No." and "Carrier Code No." are for internal use only.

4. What if I do not know who my employer's insurance carrier is?

If you do not know who the employer's insurance carrier is you may either ask your employer for the information, call the Industrial Commission's Claims Administration Section at (800) 688-8349 then press "3" after the prompt, or simply leave the line blank.

5. When listing the number of days out of work, do I count partial days?

Yes, you include partial as well as whole calendar days not worked. However, the days do not need to be consecutive.

6. What happens after I file the Form 18?

The Industrial Commission will mail an acknowledgement letter to you after your Form 18 is processed. Processing time varies according to current workload. The Industrial Commission will mail a copy of the acknowledgement letter to the employer or its workers' compensation insurance carrier asking them to contact you and inform you if compensation will be paid to you voluntarily.

To the Employee:

This Form 19 is not your claim for workers' compensation benefits. To make a claim, you must complete and sign the enclosed Form 18 and mail it to Claims Administration, N.C. Industrial Commission, 1235 Mail Service Center, Raleigh, NC 27699-1235 within two years of the date of your injury or last payment of medical compensation.
